About the Work: Shadow Work is a personal & spiritual growth process based on Jungian Psychology, Gestalt, & Psychodramatic techniques designed to access our hidden power & energy & integrate our wholeness into our lives. We all have places where we have been hurt or wounded that we have learned to hide so we don't get hurt again. In hiding these places, we hide part of our life force energy. In Shadow Work, we explore this inner territory, & reclaim who we really are with the ability to live & love more fully.

I've been struggling for over two decades with an issue that I revisited many times during my personal development work journey. While working with Mark and Jeannie I was able to recognize a piece that had been missing all of these years and have finally made peace within myself around that issue. With a new clarity and direction I'm finding that certain events in my life are no longer a struggle and my path is clear. Mark and Jeannie are a wonderful, dynamic couple—both deeply soulful and loving beings. I trust Mark and Jeannie completely and highly recommend them!
